TECHNOLOGY CAN CONNECT US, BUT ONLY CHRIST CAN TRULY UNITE US

Keeping Christ at the Center of Our Relationships

Technology allows us to communicate with family, friends, and fellow Christians in seconds. Through texts, emails, and social media, we can share news, encouragement, and God's Word. However, being connected is not the same as being united. True unity requires love, forgiveness, humility, and a shared commitment to Jesus Christ.

Christ Is the Center of Our Unity

In Ephesians 4:3, Paul encourages us to "keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." Our unity is not based on our opinions or interests but on our relationship with Christ and our commitment to follow His Word.

Use Technology to Encourage Others

Ephesians 4:29 reminds us to use words that build others up. Whether speaking face-to-face or communicating online, our words should reflect Christ's love. A simple message, phone call, or Scripture can encourage someone who is struggling or feeling forgotten.

Technology is a useful tool, but it should never replace personal fellowship, prayer, worship, and caring for one another. As Christians, we must make time to listen, serve, forgive, and strengthen our church family.

A Practical Challenge

This week, use technology to encourage someone. Send a Scripture, call a fellow Christian, or check on someone who may need support. Before speaking or posting, ask yourself: Will my words honor God and build someone up?

Technology can connect us across distances, but Christ unites our hearts through faith, love, and truth. Let us keep Him at the center of our relationships and demonstrate His love in everything we do.

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!" — Psalm 133:1 (KJV)

UNITED IN PRAYER

Brother Garrett Carson: Please pray for my father, Grant, as he begins cancer treatment this week. I thank God for the abundant resources, support, and love available to him.

Brother Albert Minet: Please pray for Tammy and me as we are both sick with COVID. I also blacked out Monday night, and the cause is still unknown. Thank you for your prayers and love. Prayer Update: Thank everyone for their prayers. I'm feeling better than I did last week.
Florida is my new home, and this church is my new family. I'm grateful that Jesus is my Savior and thankful for the opportunity to give my life to Him.

Brother Calvin Hunter: Please pray for my niece, Wanda, who will undergo a double mastectomy on Wednesday, October 21st. Pray for a successful surgery, a smooth recovery, and complete healing. Thank you!

Sister Wilma Slater: Please pray for Brother Garrey Brannon, who was taken to urgent care this morning because he was feeling unwell. Further details are not yet available. Thank you for your prayers.

Sister Mary Riviere: We thank everyone for their prayers for Melvin and Nicole. Nicole's surgery was successful, and she is recovering at home. Her father, David, was discharged from the hospital but has since experienced a setback and returned to the emergency room. Please keep him in your prayers. We also appreciate your prayers during my recovery from a serious sinus infection as I prepare to see a specialist. To God be the glory!

Sister Jamia Hylton: Please pray for our close family friend, Janet, who is currently in the ICU. Pray for her recovery, strength, and healing, and that God will see her through this difficult time.

Sister Laplachue Tyler: Please join me in thanking the Lord for today, His many blessings, and His continued guidance over my health. Pray for God's protection over our families and church family as we continue to serve Him. Remember the sick, shut-in, homeless, lost, and all those in need. Please pray for my aunt in West Palm Beach, Florida, as she prepares for surgery, asking God to guide her doctors and grant her a successful surgery and strong recovery. May His will be done. To God be the glory! Amen.
