THE BEATITUDES

“Blessed Are the Poor in Spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”

Matthew 5:3

Jesus begins the Beatitudes with a powerful reminder of our need for God. To be “poor in spirit” means recognizing that we cannot live the Christian life by our own strength, wisdom, or righteousness. It is a heart of humility that acknowledges our complete dependence upon God.

The world may teach us to be self-sufficient, but Jesus teaches us to be God-dependent. When we humble ourselves before the Lord, we make room for His grace, guidance, and strength to work in our lives.

Being poor in spirit does not mean thinking less of ourselves; it means recognizing that without God, we are spiritually needy. We come before Him with humble hearts, trusting His Word and relying on His mercy.

This humility should be evident in the way we live each day. It means being willing to pray, listen, learn, forgive, and obey God even when His will differs from our own. A heart that is poor in spirit does not demand its own way; it seeks to honor God’s way. When we recognize our need for Him, we become more willing to trust Him, follow His Word, and allow Him to direct our steps.

The promise is great: “For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” Those who humbly recognize their need for God are blessed with the hope, peace, and eternal promise found in Christ.

Let us humble ourselves, trust God completely, and seek His kingdom each day.

UNITED IN PRAYER

Sister Tracy Rouse: Please pray for Autumn Gayhart and the Gayhart family as her father, Ricky Gayhart, has been placed in hospice care. Autumn is traveling to Kentucky today. Please keep the family in your prayers for comfort, strength, and peace during this difficult time.

Brother Garrett Carson: Please continue to pray for my father, Grant, as he prepares for cancer treatment in October. We ask God to strengthen him, guide his doctors, and grant him healing according to His will. We also pray that, in God's perfect timing and according to His will, he will be blessed to retire from the Air Force in the next 3-4 years.

Sister Mary Riviere: Please pray for my doctor's appointment Tuesday and that my test results will be good. I'm trusting God for favorable results and asking for His peace, guidance, and continued blessings. Prayer Update: Thank you, Church Family, for your prayers concerning my recent doctor's visit. I am happy to report that God heard our prayers, and I received very good test results!
To God be all the glory! Thank you, brothers and sisters.

Sister Martisha Upson: Please pray for Miranda Perkins as she travels to Manila for work. Pray for God's protection, safe travels there and back, and a successful trip.
She is expected to return in mid-October.

Brother Kelvin Upson: Mr. Al Perkins was removed from life support yesterday and is responding. Please continue to pray for his healing, strength, and continued care. To God be the glory!

Brother Albert Minet: Please pray for my lodge brother, Robert, who has been hospitalized since last Sunday with a severe kidney infection. Pray for his healing and strength as he prepares to return home Wednesday. Also, please pray for Elder Mike Antonik of Shadyside Church of Christ, who suffered a head injury after being struck by a falling tree limb yesterday. Pray for his healing, strength, and recovery.

Brother Antwaun Jones: Please keep my family in your prayers. My cousin, Sandra Miller, passed away yesterday morning. Please pray for the Wilson family and all of her family and friends as they grieve their loss. May God provide them with comfort, strength, and peace during this difficult time.
