It's Always Open At The Top!

By Mike Riley

One Sunday, a preacher was delivering his sermon before a large congregation. He pointed out that Christians aren't exempt from trouble. He went on to say, "Some Christians are surrounded by trouble — trouble to the right, trouble to the left, trouble in front, and trouble behind." After hearing these words, a man who had served the Lord for many years, shouted, "Glory to God, it's always open at the top!"

This man's confidence in God is fully supported by Hebrews Chapter 4. Because our great High Priest, Jesus the Son of God, has ascended to heaven and is interceding there for us, we have good grounds for trusting Him in the midst of trouble (Hebrews 4:14). Jesus is able to sympathize with our weaknesses, for when He lived on earth He was tempted in every way that we are, yet He never sinned (Hebrews 4:15). His throne is completely approachable and is called "the throne of grace" (Hebrews 4:16).

The writer of Hebrews urges us to look up from our trials and approach that throne boldly by faith. Through humble prayer, we will receive mercy for our failures and grace to help us in our time of need (Hebrews 4:16).

Are life's trials and temptations hemming us in? Has the tempter told us there's nowhere to go? Take heart — Keep looking up — it's always open at the top! (Colossians 3:1-4).

Last week we were privileged to go to God in prayer on behalf of: Sister Yolande Chanoine (for her native country of Haiti. Comfort for the family of the late President who was assassinated, and healing for the his widow who is hospitalized due to injury sustained from the attack); Sister Linda Price (God's guidance and increased faith as she undertakes the great charge of working with the Mission in Nigeria); Brother Victor McKen (for Jihad & Yamila Fadel. Jihad is at Shands Hospital in Gainesville recuperating from a double lung transplant. Please pray for his full recovery, for his wife, Yamila, and traveling mercies for Brother McKen); Sister Cathy Davis (healing or Sister Jackie Kern's mom, Sister Hackett following her surgery); Brother Acie Sanders (healing for his brother-in-law, Chasney Jones Sr. who is suffering from blood clots); Brother Korey Mitchell (thankful for graduation gift from the congregation. Corey requested prayers as he transitions into manhood); Brother Antwaun Jones (for his wife, Rosiland who was scheduled for eye surgery on July 15th); Sister Pam Sirmons (traveling mercies for her son, Terrance. Pam is thankful to God for another birthday and for bringing her through all the tests and trials, also for her entire family). Sister Veleka Mitchell (healing for her husband, Quentin, who was suffering from lingering effects of heat exhaustion); Sister Laplachue Tyler (healing, grace and mercy for herself, God's favor for our Elders and Deacon); Brother Johnny Bryant (healing for DeAngelo, Ira and Xaxia Wilson who tested positive for COVID19); Sister Frances Hall (for favorable results on upcoming testing); Sister Shirley Bassue (healing for her 5-year-old grandson, Liam Bertin who was not feeling well following a visit to his grandfather's house).

Restored

Sister Yvonne Lewis came requesting forgiveness of the church and prayers to be restored and to control her anger.

Greater Love

Jack Kelley, a reporter working for USA Today, was in Mogadishu, the capital of Somalia, to cover a terrible famine.

He came across a boy on a back road. The boy was malnourished; his stomach was protruding. His hair was reddish, and his skin was wrinkled as if he were 100 years old.

The photographer gave him a grapefruit. The boy was so weak he could not hold it, so Kelley cut it in half. The boy took half, looked up as if to say "thank you," and began to walk toward his village. He did not realize the photographer and reporter followed at a distance.

In the village he came to his younger brother, who looked to be dead. His eyes were glazed over. The older boy kneeled, bit off and chewed a piece of grapefruit, opened his brother's mouth, put the fruit in, and worked his jaw up and down. (The reporter later learned that the older brother had been doing this for two weeks.)

A couple days later the older brother died, but the younger one lived. Is this what Jesus meant when He said, "Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one's life for his friends"? (John 15:13).

Love changes everything. It changes our hearts and causes us to do things for others that we would never have done before. —Anonymous

The Closing Song is Worship!

Introduction: Read Psa. 100

- As I stand in the back of the auditorium, I see that a few don't worship during the closing song. You whisper to others, put away song books, gather things making ready for your exit.
- As an observer I have questions about this practice.
 - Do you worship during other songs, the Lord's Supper, etc. in the same way? May I assume that your lack of attention in the closing song reveals your heart about worship?
 - Do you realize that you remove any edification you brought to the assembly by this casual attitude toward worship?

Discussion: As you consider this practice I want you to think on two things:

I. THE UTTER SACREDNESS OF WORSHIP

- Worship is a time to enter into the veil through Christ. Heb. 10:20. It's not to be taken lightly.
- After the death of Nadab and Abihu (Lev. 10:1-2) Aaron was warned not to allow anything to take away judgment so as to compromise discernment. Lev. 10:8-11. POINT: Worship takes all of your judgment and attention.
- Perhaps some don't realize that they are in the presence of God. You can't worship someone unless you're in His presence.
 - Prayers are to God. Phil. 4:6
 - Singing is to God. Col. 3:16
 - Giving is for God's work. 1 Cor. 16:1-2; 2 Cor. 9:6-7
 - We preach God's Word. 2 Tim. 3:16-17; 2 Tim. 4:2
 - Lord's Supper is to remember the Son of God. 1 Cor. 11:23-25.
- In the temple, worship was done in the presence of God. God's glory was behind the veil. Exod. 25:22
- Worship is not just for Jerusalem any longer. John 4:21
- Isaiah was privileged to see "behind the veil." Isa. 6:1-5; as was John, Rev. 4. They saw the glory and majesty of God who was presiding over worship.
- When you're in worship you are in the presence of a holy God. 1 Pet. 1:15-16

II. YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR BROTHER'S EDIFICATION

- The Word is able to build you up (preached by brethren). Acts 20:32; 2 Tim. 3:16-17; 4:1-4.
- Edified at news of conversion. Acts 9:31
- Edified when we follow after things which make for peace. Rom. 14:19
- We edify when we bear the infirmities of the weak. Rom. 15:1-3
- Paul commands, "Let all things be done unto edifying." 1 Cor. 14:26
- Edify one another. 1 Thess. 5:11
- Provoke to love and to good works. Heb. 10:24
- Exhort one another. Heb. 3:13
- Once again, these passages are to show that we are responsible for the edification, the exhortation and provoking to love and good works of our brethren.
- Where is the edification, the exhortation, the provoking to love and good works by such a casual attitude toward worship?

Conclusion:

- My purpose was not to embarrass anyone but it WAS to provoke you, that is, to love and good works.
- Consider that the closing song is still, and will forever more be, an act of worship to the Almighty.
- Consider that your brothers and sisters around you are looking to you for edification, exhortation, and provoking.
