Sister Rosa Reid: Expressed her gratitude to the congregation for their prayers regarding her foot concerns. She reported she had a podiatry appointment last week and another one scheduled for this week as well. They are making a good faith effort to determine the cause of the foot swelling and pain. She asked that everyone would please keep her and this concern in their prayers.

Brother Calvin Hunter: Petitions on behalf of Wanda, his niece, who is hospitalized due to complications associated with multiple sclerosis.

Sister Lynn Harvey: Petitions for her mom to receive favorable lab test results as well as positive readings regarding her echo gram. She specifically asked God to completely heal her mom.

Sister Shirley Bassue: Expressed thanksgiving and gratitude to God and to the congregation for her son, Ricardo and Dewi's (daughter-in-law) safe return to Egypt from Indonesia. They have two more years to serve on this professional contract.

Brother Larry Clark: Sympathy and condolences for Sister Beverly Clark's niece who recently passed away. Please pray for Sister Patricia Greene who is mourning this painful loss.

Sister Shereen Miller: Acknowledged her sins and asked for God's forgiveness and restoration. She specifically stated that she hadn't been faithful to God in quite some time—and she needed to be restored back to our Heavenly Father.

Elder Bill Davis: Prayers and petitions for Sister Hazel Duncan who will undergo knee replacement surgery on Monday morning, Lord willing. Elder Davis is specifically asking God for a successful procedure and a swift recovery for Sister Hazel.

Sister Pam Sirmons: Expressed thanksgiving to the congregation for the calls, texts messages, and prayers offered on behalf of her mom, Sister Clarethia Sirmons. She is doing better after pacemaker surgery and will be able to get out of her sling in a few weeks. She concluded her request by asking the congregation to please keep her entire family in prayer.

Sister Kenyetta Thomas: Expressed thanksgiving to God for His healing in her body.

Brother DeAngelo & Sister Ira Wilson: Prayers, petitions, and traveling grace as they permanently transition to Houston, Texas. They are specifically asking for God's guidance and protection as they all start new jobs, new schools, and living in a new environment. They are also asking God to lead them to a faithful, congregation of the Lord's church that will put them to work and provide spiritual nutrition and leadership as they run this Christian race. Finally, they are beseeching God's tenderness and grace upon Miracle, Ira's sister, that her health be restored and she be allowed to come home from the hospital.

 Brother Sidney & Sister Connie Roper: Expressed their desire to place their membership and "return home" to the Arlington church of Christ! Sidney grew up at Arlington and became a Christian here. Connie also obeyed the gospel at Arlington. And yes, they were married at Arlington as well! Welcome home Sidney, Connie, Tyler (currently in Memphis), Taliyah, and Christian!
 Sister Lynn Harvey: Prayers and petitions for her mom who had a recent fall. She is grateful to God that nothing serious presented from the fall. She also stated that Symone's blood pressure was elevated and was taken to the hospital for observation. She is thankful that God worked through the medical professionals to stabilize her pressure before releasing her to home. Sister Lynn admitted to having a challenging day but is grateful that God walked with her through the challenges. She asked that the congregation keep her family in prayer at this time.
 Elder Acie Sanders: Requested prayers for three family concerns: (1) Sister Nancy Berg recently fractured her wrist.
