The Church That Prays Together—Stays Together!

Brother Leonard Brown: Prayers and petitions for back spasms and pain. He is resting and taking medication to relieve the pain. He and Sister Nellie worshipped on the Platform last Sunday for the morning and evening services. The Browns expressed their thanks and appreciation for the love, support, and prayers from the congregation.

Sister Pam Sirmons: Prayers for her brother, Jonas Sirmons who had a port removed from his neck at the end of last week. Sister Pam is especially praying that the current port in his arm will address all remaining concerns without any additional surgeries.

Sister Yolande Chanoine: Thanksgiving for the great news regarding her student Daphnee. She successfully passed her Algebra 1 examination! We are grateful that she arrived safely in Oakland, CA as well. We also pray that her conversation with her son David will be fruitful.

Elder Acie Sanders: Informed the congregation that Sister Shirley Robinson, former Arlington member, was extremely grateful to our members who reached out to her with love and concern last week. She is still nursing a sore leg but most appreciative of the Christ-centered love extended to her. He also stated that Brother Wilbert Jones is requesting prayers for his sister Liz to feel better and open up regarding her struggles with the loss of their younger brother. Finally, Elder Sanders informed us that Brother Eric Glover was released from the hospital last Saturday. He had been hospitalized since Wednesday. We thank God for his release and that he is feeling better!

Chris Lewis: Prayers and petitions for his baby brother, Zaire. He was not feeling well last Sunday.

Sister Carol Spivey: Travelling mercies as she flies to New York on Wednesday to connect with her daughter Christy. They both plan to leave on Thursday for Italy and Greece! They expect to return to New York on May 1st, Lord willing with Sister Carol coming home to Jacksonville on May 2nd. Sister Carol specifically prayed for their health and safety while they are away.

Sister Selena Bryant: Prayers and supplications for Shanteal Sapp. She had a miscarriage at 38 weeks. Please pray for Shanteal and her family as they deal with this difficult situation.

Sister Sylvia Hicks: Asked for God's forgiveness and restoration. She stated that she sinned against God by neglecting to do the right things. She repented of this behavior and asked to be restored back to our Heavenly Father.

Brother Jerry Murrell: Prayers for his Mom, Sister Sharon Murrell who is recovering from knee surgery. She was able to go home the same day but has had more pain. Sister Sharon would like to thank you in advance for your continued prayers on her behalf.
