“One Mother”

By Dennis Doughty

*In our lives many people come and go
Friends and fellow workers,
But one relationship remains always,
You only have one Mother.*

*We first knew life within her womb,
Her gentle touch like no other,
We held her hand to cross the street,
Our first love was our mother.*

*For every cut finger, and wounded knee
We ran in tears to no other,
Only her kiss could make it better,
We found healing in the arms of Mother.*

*Through our life as we traveled on
When we felt we could go no further,
We would call the wisest woman we knew,
No one knows better than mother.*

*When her hair goes gray, and her eye dim,
When over her death bed we hover,
We will thank God for His greatest Creation,
You only have one mother.*
