The Church That Prays Together—Stays Together!

Sister Tracy Rouse: Prayers and petitions for her daughter, Autumn as they patiently wait for her last test results. She also requested prayers for Autumn's father, Ricky Gayhart. His cancer has spread to his liver, lungs, mouth, and blood. Please keep him in your prayers at this time.

Sister Renita Simmons: Petitions for her daughter Jordon as she navigates the interview process for employment. She also asked for travelling mercies as Jordon and Dillon drive to Ohio for his grandfather's funeral. Sister Renita is seeking God's grace, protection, and peace while they are away. They made it to their destination safely and plan to return from Ohio on June 6th, Lord willing.

Sister Wilma Slater: Expressed thanksgiving to God and the Arlington family for their prayers and support while she visited the Grand Canyon.

Sister Jamia Hylton: Expressed thanksgiving to God for a favorable report from her neurosurgeon. She was told the battery replacement procedure will be less than an hour and the tingling sensation she has been having near the implant is normal. Finally, Jamia is seeking God's guidance for her sister to find a great autism school for her niece. Thank God for His grace and mercy!

Sister Pam Sirmons: Prayers and condolences for her friend, Delores Bryant. Delores lost two sisters in a span of 24 hours. This was devastating news to the Bryant family. Please continue to keep this family in your prayers. Pam concluded her request by asking for God's grace/mercy to be on her family as well as the sick/shut-in, homeless, elderly, the bereaved and especially Sister Janie Thomas.

Brother Kelvin Upson: Prayers and supplication for him and his wife, Tish. He is specifically asking God for strength and patience and to trust Him implicitly with all they have and hope to become in Christ. He also asked that God would give them peace of mind regarding a recent decision that will turn out for their ultimate good and God's glory. He concluded his prayer by asking God to please give them the strength and focus to serve Him in all instances.

Elder Johnny Bryant: Prayers for his wife, Sister Selena. She had a dental procedure last Wednesday and was dealing with slight pain. Please pray that her pain subsides and she feels better soon.

Sister Linda Hunter: Expressed thanksgiving to God for: (1) Calvin, who introduced her to the Lord's church, (2) 31 years of wedded bliss through all the seasons that life brings, and (3) Special thanks to the Arlington congregation for their love, support, and well wishes! She concluded by encouraging Arlington to love one another—especially the Lord!
