The Fruit of the Spirit: Kindness

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control." — Galatians 5:22-23

Kindness is one of the clearest expressions of God's love at work in our lives. It is more than simply being polite or performing occasional good deeds. Biblical kindness is a heart attitude that reflects God's compassion, mercy, and grace toward others.

Every day, we have opportunities to show kindness through encouraging words, a helping hand, a listening ear, or a forgiving spirit. Even the smallest act of kindness can brighten someone's day and point them toward the love of Christ.

Jesus demonstrated perfect kindness throughout His ministry. He welcomed the outcast, comforted the hurting, healed the sick, and showed mercy to those who needed hope. As followers of Christ, we are called to follow His example by treating others with the same love and compassion He has shown us.

In a world that often values power over compassion and criticism over encouragement, kindness stands out as a powerful witness to the transforming work of the Holy Spirit. When we choose kindness, we build stronger relationships, encourage weary hearts, and glorify God.

"Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you."
— Ephesians 4:32

was laid to rest yesterday. Pray that the Lord will a compassionate heart as I seek to care for and encourage my siblings.

round her and her family with His peace and
